DR. PENTECOST

Will Begin the Union Meeting
December Eighth.

Date Fixed a Week Earlier Than
First Announced—Meeting
Will Continue 10 Days.

Rev. Geo. F. Pentecost, of Yonkers, N. Y., the eminent Presbyterian divine, will begin a union meeting at the Tabernacle on Sunday, Dec. 8th, which will continue ten days or two weeks.

There will be a morning prayer-meeting during the meetings, at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church. On Sunday morning the pastors of the city will conduct their own services and the first service will be at 2:30 p. m. The afternoon services will continue at that hour and at 7 p. m. There will be a union choir under the lead of a chorister. Dr. Pentecost will be accompanied by his wife and daughter. They will be entertained by Mrs. Carrie Arnold, while in the city.

GOOD WOMAN DEAD.

Mrs. R. C. Thurmond Passes
Away Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Summers Thurmond, wife of Mr. R. C. Thurmond, of this county, died Sunday, Nov. 24th.

She was born in this county Sept. 11, 1836, and was married to Mr. Thurmond Oct. 11, 1854.

Mrs. Thurmond leaves a family of grown children and several brothers and sisters and other relatives. Mrs. J. O. Cooper, of this city, is one of her sisters. She was a pious and consistent member of the Methodist church for the greater part of her life.

FIRE AT PEMBROKE.

Dwelling and Contents Destroyed
Saturday Night.

A two-story frame dwelling belonging to Mr. E. J. Murphey at Pembroke, and occupied by Henry Shelby, col., was destroyed by fire Saturday night.

The occupants were away from home and the entire contents of the building also went up in smoke.

It is not known how the fire originated. Mr. Murphey had $300 insurance on the building and Shelby's effects were also insured. The total loss is probably $800 or $1,000.

COWS DYING.

Much Stock Poisoned by Eating
Corn Smut.

Farmers are losing their cattle from eating smut on the corn stalks in the corn fields. Many farmers carelessly turned their cows into their fields after gathering the corn, forgetting that smut is fatal to cattle, and leaving it on the stalks where they could help themselves to it. A large number have been poisoned in this way.

Mr. John F. Ladd, of Trigg county, lost a dozen head of cattle last week, and a similar complaint comes from McCracken county. A large number of cows in Tennessee have also been lost in a like manner.

We have heard of no losses in this county as yet.

WANTS TO BE PAGE.

George Lawrence Will be Applicant Before Democratic Caucus.

Cadiz, Nov. 23.—Little George Lawrence, an attaché of the Cadiz Record office and a universal favorite of all, will be an applicant before the next Democratic caucus at Frankfort for the office of page of the House of Representatives. George is a brother of the Representative-elect from this county, who was himself a page in '89-90.

SMALL REMNANT

Of Strikers Found In the Nortonville Camp Sunday.

The Evacuation Had Taken Place
When the Soldiers Appeared
—A Few Arrests.

Madisonville, Ky., Nov. 24.—The "Battle of Nortonville," was brief and bloodless. The result of it was the seizure of the tents and equipment of the strikers, the taking of twenty-four prisoners and the complete breaking up of the last camp in Hopkins county, at least for the time.

Judge Hall and Adj. Gen. Murray did their work with a thoroughness, yet with a show of discretion that spoke well both for their firmness and their judgment. Though the militia was there, their services were not needed beyond the "moral suasion" which their presence lent the occasion. During yesterday afternoon and last night about 125 of the strikers departed, most of them probably because they were not residents of the county and the leaders did not want this fact to become known in a positive or official way. Others left because they have good homes, far more comfortable than the camp which they occupied merely for the effect that numbers might have in their peculiar methods of conducting this strike. They did not want to be arrested and have it proved in court that they had homes, and some of them families, where it would be cheaper and better for them to live than in the camp, thus disproving their claim that they lived in camps because they had no other place to go. That has been their only excuse for maintaining the camps.

Some of the Prisoners Were Boys.

Some of the prisoners are mere boys, whose parents are living and who have good homes. One of these boys is from Central City, while the man who was left in camp as the leader, Artie Oates, lives in Muhlenburg county, and is the First Lieutenant of the Greenville company of the State Guard. He has been the camp drillmaster.

"Packed" Them.

When the arrests were made this morning, and the officers were ready to start for the depot, the prisoners sat down in the tent and refused to move.

"We won't resist," they said, "but you've got to pack us."

Suddenly they sat there until Chief Detective J. B. Harlan, of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, went up to the largest man in the bunch, picked him up with the assistance of another special deputy and carried him from the tent toward a large two-horse wagon, which had been brought out for the tents and stoves. Seeing that the deputies meant business the strikers got up laughing and walked out. By noon the soldiers were back in Madisonville, while the following strikers, save three, were in jail: Curt Harsefield, J. W. Harris, L. V. Wright, Arthur Thompson, John Young, Stallard Dunning, George Spence, Jesse Anderson, J. A. Hagan, J. R. Crafton, J. W. Aaron, Milton Barnes, William Crick, T. L. Hullet, J. T. Vickery, Mace Young, Herbert Gaddie, H. Saddler, John Trother, C. M. Barnes, William Larnoth.

Talk of Re-Establishing Camp.

Several union men at Nortonville who were not arrested said that the camp would be re-established on the same spot, but District Organizer William Read, of Beaver Dam, said that there were not now in Hopkins county a union official who had the authority to buy more tents, stoves and provisions and re-establish the camp, all of them being in Owensboro, where their Federal injunction case comes up to-morrow before Judge Evans.

Upon the return of President
